

AST Receives Oracle PartnerNetwork 2011 Titan Award for SOA Solutions

Third Titan Recognition In Last 3 Years

San Francisco, CA, October 3, 2011:

AST Corporation was honored as a recipient of an Oracle PartnerNetwork North America Titan Award for 2011, presented during the Oracle Open World conference in San Francisco. This award recognizes AST's achievement in developing and implementing an Oracle Service Oriented Architecture (SOA) integration solution for customers.

"Oracle's valued partner community in North America continues to reach new levels of expertise and innovation in developing and implementing Oracle technologies and delivering value-added services to joint customers," said Ted Bereswill, Oracle senior vice president of North America Alliances and Channels. "This year's Titan Award winners reflect the powerful combination that Oracle and our Specialized partners bring to customers across the enterprise and distinct industries."

The Oracle North America Titan Award recognizes partner excellence in a number of categories including sales, marketing and solution development. In accepting the award for AST Corporation, CEO Pravin Kumar acknowledged how proud he was to receive the Titan Award. He expressed his appreciation of the AST's team that helped achieve this remarkable recognition for the company.
