HEADLINE: Dako Denmark A/S selects AST Corporation to assist Dako North America offices in California and Colorado in implementing Oracle's Advanced Benefits module.

Naperville, IL – Dako Denmark A/S, headquartered in Glostrup, Denmark, a short eight miles from Copenhagen, is one of the world's leading companies in cancer diagnostics for both clinical and research use. Already established as an Oracle Financials and Supply Chain Management user in Denmark, Dako A/S has now teamed with AST Corporation, an Oracle Certified Advantage Partner, to expand their Oracle HR footprint to include Advanced Benefits at its North America facilities.

The Dako North America human resources staff have aligned themselves with AST's teamwork approach, beginning with matching our talented staff, their skills and AST's core competencies to compliment the entire Dako human resources group. Drawing from the collective knowledge and experience of our fellow consultants, we are providing comprehensive, integrated advisory experience upon which Dako North America can rely.

Like all AST clients, Dako North America will be able to leverage proven Oracle Applications solutions while benefiting from the opportunity to adopt best business practices at their Fort Collins, Colorado and Carpinteria, California facilities.
