AST Employee Receives Honorable Commendation from Chicago Police Department

Naperville, IL August 18, 2015: AST employee Patrick Nguyen received the Superintendent's Award of Merit from the Chicago Police Department on Tuesday, August 18, 2015. This award is granted to any department-sworn or civilian member for an outstanding accomplishment that has resulted in improved administration, improved operations or substantial savings in manpower or operational costs, wherein the member has gone far beyond the requirements of their normal assignment.

Patrick was recognized for going beyond his normal responsibilities as the Project Manager of the Troubled Buildings project. The Troubled Buildings project integrated various City of Chicago systems providing valuable information to first responders, which greatly impacted their safety and the safety of the community. Patrick received a medallion, ribbon bar and certificate in recognition of these contributions to the Chicago Police Department.

About the Chicago Police Department

The Chicago Police Department (CPD), is the principal law enforcement agency of Chicago, Illinois, under the jurisdiction of the Mayor of Chicago. It is the second largest non-federal law enforcement agency in the United States behind the New York City Police Department. CPD has over 12,000 sworn officers and approximately 2,000 additional employees. Tracing its roots back to 1835, the Chicago Police Department is one of the oldest modern police forces in the world.
